

JUST A THOUGHT

Have you ever noticed how quick we are to question the motive of others and yet we are slow to question our own? When others hurt us, we assume the worst in their intentions. When we are guilty, we excuse our own actions saying the other person is just too sensitive. The thing is, God knows our heart and there is no deceiving Him with our excuses.

There are many good things that cause us to take action, such as: love, faith, compassion, or generosity. There are also unhealthy motives that move us to action like: pride, insecurity, ambition, greed, or fear. When God considers our motives, He is looking for one thing—LOVE. All we do should come from a love for God and a love for others.

Let us then take the time to look past the actions we take and examine our motives through God's eyes. Then we can move with a clean conscience.

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

Romans 8:1

THANK YOU

Dear Church Family:

Thank you for all your prayers, calls and cards during my recent surgeries. I appreciate your kindness, support and love. Love in Christ, Carol Arflin

I cannot find enough words to express my love and appreciation from all of you for the prayers which lifted me. God truly performed a miracle in my life. Your prayers were strong and powerful. I am extremely grateful to each of you for your love, kindness and concern you had for me. God Bless, Ruth Patrick

I want to thank you for your generous gift you gave to help fund my trip to China and North Korea. The trip was very successful and God opened many doors for us. God used our group to plant the seeds of the Gospel and it also opened the door for reconciliation between our countries. I appreciate you and I pray that God will continue to richly bless you as you continue to support missions for the cause of Christ!

Rev. Gary Leutzinger
